* The Dowry of Mary - King Richard II dedicated England to Mary in a ceremony in the (then Catholic) Westminster Abbey in 1381. The historical understanding of England as "Mary's Dowry" is understood that England has been "set apart" for Mary. Pope St John Paul II said "In England, the Dowry of Mary, the faithful, for centuries, have made pilgrimage to her shrine at Walsingham." On Sunday, 29th March, England will be rededicated to Our Lady. This will take place at 12 Noon here with a special time of prayer at the Lady Chapel. *Advice from the Catholic Bishops advice in the wake of the spread of coronavirus (COVID-19) is at this stage about hand washing and use of hand sanitisers.
